PL for Teachers of SQA National 4 Media

Teaching National 4/5 Media Sun 10 September 2017 1030-1600

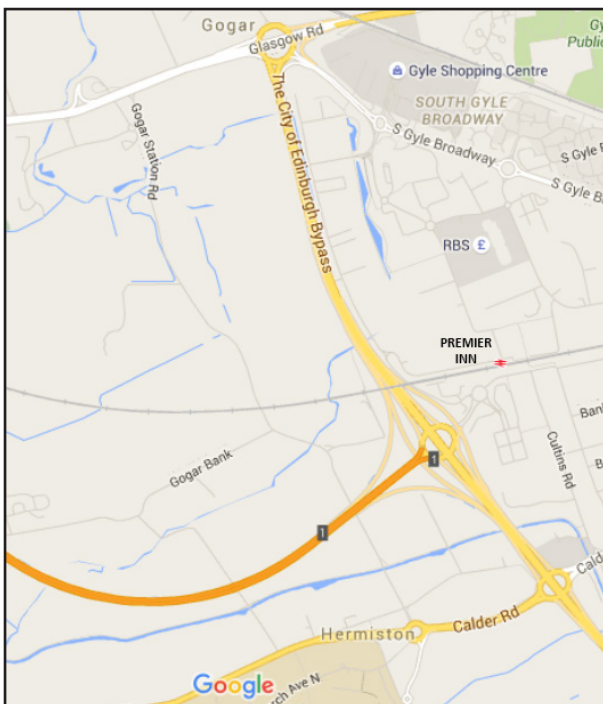

Venue: Premier Inn Meetings Edinburgh Park, 1 Lochside Court, Edinburgh EH12 9FX (close to Edinburgh Park Station and the Gyle Shopping Centre)

Fee: £50 (including refreshments & digital resources) - Lunch is not provided but a Costa cafe in the hotel sells fresh sandwiches and hot toasties/baguettes.

Target Audience: Prospective and current teachers/lecturers of SQA National 4/5 Media. The course would also be suitable for those teaching National 3 Media and those seeking an introduction to teaching media in English.

Aims: The course will

1. Outline an integrated approach to teaching National 4/5 Media
2. Relate teaching and learning to assessment requirements of National 4/5 Media.

About the tutor: Rick Instrell is a founder member of AMES (Association for Media Education in Scotland, ames.scot). He has taught media & film studies at school and university levels and is a regular contributor to AMES' 'Media Education Journal'. He runs a PL and consultancy business (Deep Learning, deep-learning.co.uk).

How to get to the venue

Train: Trains from Waverley/Haymarket to Edinburgh Park are every 30 minutes (latest train 1006 to arrive at venue in time). The journey time is 10 minutes and the hotel is next to Edinburgh Park Station.

Car: From the M8 (eastbound), take exit 1 mile from Hermiston Gate for (City Bypass) A720. Follow road (right lane) to Gogar roundabout, take 3rd exit and follow signs for South Gyle. Approach Gyle roundabout (right lane, follow signs for Edinburgh Park train station) and take 3rd exit towards Lochside Crescent and continue in left lane past traffic lights. Continue through 2 mini roundabouts and drive 400 yards. The Premier Inn hotel is on the left hand side of the road.
